insane isn't the right word....

The lighting is because of the flash on the digital camera. But anyway, I want a bright look because this is a cartoony parody, and well... I just think it'd look a lot nicer brightly lit.

The set isn't final yet. If I can get more cardboard boxes off the street, I'm adding them, and I also need to go to the supermarket tomorrow and get a bag of flour...

I would LOVE LOVE LOVE to have a fire extinguisher that I can set off, but I don't have the budget, nor is it probably safe...

I don't think it would be unsafe. What's it gonna do, start a fire? ;)

And you don't need to buy one, just steal one. Er, borrow one from one of your friends.

Surely you could get loads of old boxes from the supermarket while you're there?

Depends how you work it out. Find a big box, put a slightly smaller box inside, put a slightly smaller box inside that, smaller box inside that etc, in a Russian doll kinda way?
